

LETTER OF MOTIVATION FOR ADMISSION TO A DOCTORAL PROGRAMME

In order for your application to be evaluated correctly, this Letter of Motivation must be submitted. It must include the endorsement of a Dr/researcher of the University of Alcalá, who will act as Director or Tutor (or both). If you have not received the information of this endorsement, please consult the Coordinator of the Doctoral Programme.

Surname and first name: _____

Tax no. / Id. No. / Passport: _____

Appropriateness of previous training

Detail the studies for which you are applying, as well as specific courses and work experience in the field of research of the Doctoral Programme, highlighting the suitability of your overall training with the line of research in which you wish to join

Proposed research area

Please indicate the research line of the PhD programme in which you wish to enrol and the possible title of the project, as well as a succinct description of the topic you wish to research.

Motivation to undertake such studies

Indicate the personal and professional justification for applying to the programme.

Thesis Supervision

Before you apply for admission, it is recommended that you make contact with the researchers who could supervise and tutor your doctoral studies.

If you have established contact with a lecturer at the University of Alcalá with the aim of supervising your doctoral thesis, either as supervisor or tutor or both, please fill in the details in the form below.

If the proposed Thesis Supervisor is a researcher from outside the University of Alcalá (CSIC, IMDEA, IMIDRA, CNIO, other universities, etc.), please indicate in this box the following details: Name, Centre/Department/Unit and e-mail address. In this case, the pre-registration application must include a CV of the researcher, which, if the application is approved, will be incorporated and visible on the website of the English-Spanish translation doctoral program.
